

Adjustments at interview - Deadline 22 October 2026 (23:59 UK time)

This form must be completed by every Christ's applicant who declared a disability, neurodiverse condition, mental health condition or long-term health conditions at UCAS and by any further applicants who require adjustments or interviewer awareness if selected for interview.

Name:
Course: including 'Biological' or 'Physical' if Natural Sciences
UCAS Personal ID:
Email address: The same as on UCAS application
School or college:

If you DON'T need adjustments or interviewer awareness, please sign this declaration and also follow the instructions in this box.

I disclosed a disability on my UCAS application but I do not need any adjustments or interviewer awareness in online interviews or in any College written assessment, pre-interview reading or exercises.

If you sign this declaration, you do not need to complete the rest of this form. Please sign and date below and upload the form by 22 October following the instructions at <https://www.christs.cam.ac.uk/current-applicants/adjustments>.

You do not need to provide an evidence document.

Extra time

Delete or cross out the answer you don't want.

Do you need extra time at your Cambridge interview and/or any College written assessment? If you select 'No', go to the next section: 'Additional adjustments'.	Yes No
If you need extra time, give the percentage.	____ % extra time
Do you usually receive extra time in all subjects or only specific subjects?	All subjects Only specific subjects
If only specific subjects, please tell us which subjects:
Do you need extra time in a College written assessment taken remotely?	Yes No
Do you need extra time for pre-interview reading?	Yes No
Do you need extra time for a pre-interview written task (for example, problem-solving questions)?	Yes No
Do you need extra time for responding to verbal questions during an interview? Extra time in interviews means you will have longer to answer the same set of questions (if needed), not extra questions.	Yes No

Additional adjustments

Examples of additional adjustments include, but are not limited to large print or alternative formats, rest breaks, assistive technology or specialist software and communication support/preferred communication style.

Do you need additional adjustments?	Yes No Delete or cross out the answer you don't want.
If you require additional adjustments, please provide full details*. You can make this box bigger if more space is needed. *e.g. do not just write "rest breaks" – instead explain exactly when you need rest breaks, how often, how long and how they are normally administered for you at school.

Supporting evidence

If you need adjustments or interviewer awareness, you must provide one type of supporting evidence in English. We can only make adjustments where supporting evidence has been provided. If you are unsure how to provide evidence, please email Christ's Admissions (admissions@christs.cam.ac.uk)

Your document must do two things:

1. Confirm what your disability / neurodiverse condition / mental health condition / long-term health condition is
2. Confirm the adjustments that you receive in public exams

You do not need to submit an educational psychologist's report with the form unless it specifically outlines recommendations relevant to the adjustments being requested and will aid the College in making informed decisions about assessment and selection.

Write YES next to one option to send with the form:

A signed letter from your school or college on headed paper This will ideally be dated 2026, and will confirm:	Yes	No
• your disability, neurodiverse condition, mental health condition or long-term health condition • the percentage of extra time you are entitled to (for example, 25%), if relevant • rest break details (minutes/hour, proportion of exam, or fixed total), if relevant • any other adjustments you need • the basis for these arrangements (for example, medical diagnosis, psychological or specialist teacher assessment)

JCQ Form 8 (Profile of Learning Difficulties)	Yes	No
