Job summary:
To contribute to the pastoral and spiritual well-being for the whole College community.

Key responsibilities

- To provide Christian worship and to be responsible for maintaining the College Chapel as a place of regular worship. It is expected that this will include, although not exclusively, full and regular Anglican services during University term time and on other occasions throughout the ecumenical year; Eucharist on Sunday, Sunday and weekday Evensong, Compline and other offices such as alumni reunion services, Baptisms, Marriages, Funerals and Memorial Services.

- To deliver sermons and/or arrange for sermons to be delivered on appropriate occasions.

- To ensure the work of the Chapel is open and receptive to all regardless of race, creed, gender, sexuality or status.

- To be responsible for the administration of all Chapel affairs.

- To ensure that all legal and statutory requirements relating to the running of the Chapel and its services are fulfilled.

- To work with internal and external groups and agencies including the Diocese to develop the College’s Christian life.

- To find new and innovative ways to engage the College community in spiritual life.

- To foster a sense of community through social events, discussion groups and other activities which will add to the richness of College life for all.

- To encourage ecumenical and multi-faith links and offer opportunities for debate and explorations on issues of values, faith and belief.
• To provide formal and informal pastoral and spiritual guidance to Fellows, staff and students, regardless of faith or belief.
• In liaison with the Senior Tutor and Tutors of the College to play a substantial role in the provision of welfare and support to undergraduate and graduate students.
• To be available and visible to all College members, Fellows, students and staff, for confidential advice, discussion or support on religious and non religious matters.
• To be available to all College members, Fellows, students and staff in times of personal distress, sickness, incapacity or bereavement and to help support individuals and their families in times of crisis. To be part of the College’s “out of hours” team.
• To work closely with the Director of Music and Organ Scholars in supporting the College’s thriving choral tradition and to support and promote the Chapel Choir both within the College community and further afield.
• To arrange for the reading of Latin Grace in Hall.

Other duties
• At the discretion of the Chaplain, one or more ordinands from the Cambridge Theological Colleges may be sent on attachment to the Chapel for training and mentoring in preparation for Holy Orders. This is not an essential duty but is always welcomed by the College.

Other information
• A willingness to be involved in College teaching would be welcome, for which additional payment at the College’s normal teaching rates will apply. Such additional duties might entail:
  o arranging and monitoring College teaching in Theology and Religious Studies
  o giving advice on examination entries and other educational matters relating to Theology and Religious Studies
  o if requested, interviewing potential candidates for admission
  o advising the Director of Admissions on relevant applications
• The Chaplain will be expected to maintain a relationship with a spiritual director or mentor connected with the Anglican Church.
• There is an assumption that the post-holder will accept a licence from the Bishop of Ely.
• The Chaplain will be a member of the Cambridge Deans and Chaplains Group.
• The Chaplain may call upon the services of the Fellows’ Secretary for office assistance.
• The College provides a mentor (senior member of the Fellowship) as a source of confidential and objective advice and support.

General responsibilities
• To take part in the College’s appraisal scheme and to undertake training as required.
• To comply fully with all the College’s policies including health and safety, equality of opportunity and data protection.
• To undertake any other reasonable request or duties commensurate with this post.

The above is not an exhaustive list of duties. The post-holder may be asked to take on different tasks as required and all employees are expected to work collaboratively to support the overall work of the College.
